Orientation Week.

Careful of those ste...e.c.ps.

On September 22, 292 new students descended upon the Monmouth College campus eager to embark on their college careers. This group is the first to fully partake in Monmouth's new academic program, the 3-3 plan. Included in this plan is a reading program which was started in the summer and will continue for the student's four years at Monmouth. During orientation week, the days were filled with tests, cluster group meetings, and registration. Swaf, reinstated after an absence of two years, provided an added incentive to freshmen to obey the rules and learn the traditions of Monmouth.

Registration

The class of 1966 was the first to register for the new 3-3 plan. Students registered for three courses in each of the three terms. There will be concentrated study in each subject and it is hoped that students and faculty alike will benefit from the new program.

Will our float be in first place?

Homecoming 1962

As is tradition, Monmouth's Homecoming started off with its annual parade, which had a theme of "Twice Told Tales." The floats this year were unique in that they all had lights, music or smoke to add to their individual themes. The parade started at the college chapel and continued down Broadway through Monmouth. Bands from various high schools in the area and the procession of the queen and her attendants all helped to make this parade one of the best in Monmouth's history.

In the afternoon, Monmouth played Lawrence College in a rousing football game. The bleachers were packed with alums, students, and Pep Club all cheering our team on. Halftime activities included the bagpipe band and presentation of the queen, her court, and the winning float.

The dance on Saturday evening was the finale of Homecoming Weekend. Freshmen decorated the gym with blue streamers, and band provided good music so everyone had an enjoyable time. The climax of the dance was the crowning of the queen, Dee Ann Smith, by Dr. Gibson.

Homecoming queen and her court presented were:
C. Couleur, L. Lyndrup, D. Smith, J. Niblock, and C. Thrift.

Parents' Weekend

The weekend of November 3, 1962, found the parents of Monmouth College students on our campus. After a day filled with faculty conferences, a football game against Carleton, a convocation explaining the Three-Three System, and fraternity and sorority functions, they enjoyed The Cradle Song in the Monmouth Little Theater.

MC students and parents cheered for the football team on the cold November day.

The Cradle Song

The Cradle Song, a sentimental comedy set in a Spanish convent of the middle Nineteenth Century, was presented on November 1, 2, and 3, 1962 in the Monmouth College Little Theater. This simple romantic play has been given in many countries and translated into many languages. It has been called "a comedy based on a tear."

The blend of the monastic and the worldly was nicely achieved by the Monmouth student cast under the direction of Brooks McNamara.

"Sequence in Sound" was presented in the auditorium on November 20. The program provided an evening of enjoyable musical entertainment for the student body. The Turkey Trot held annually in the Union was held after the musical show.

Christmas Oratorio

Christmas celebration at Monmouth began with the presentation of Handel's "Messiah." The choir, directed by Douglas Peterson, consisted of 135 voices and was accompanied by a 30 piece orchestra. Other traditions, the Senior Sing and the Christmas dinner, were enjoyed by the students before vacation.

Liberal Arts

Richard Gard

Richard A. Gard, a lecturer at Yale University, was one of the outstanding features of the Festival. Mr. Gard has travelled extensively in Japan and the Far East. Buddhism is his field of study and his lecture was excellent.

Dr. Milton J. Allen was from Falls Church, Virginia. He is a research associate in the Bio-Organic-Electro-Chemistry Melpar Inc. Mr. Allen received his Ph.D. at John Hopkins University and Monmouth was very fortunate to have him as a guest lecturer of the Liberal Arts Festival.

Won Kyung Cho, lecturer and contemporary dancer, has toured the country and Monmouth had him as a guest during the Liberal Arts Festival. Won Cho was born in Korea and was educated at Yonsei University and also studied at Julliard School of Music.

Vera Dean

Felix Greene

A concert pianist and prolific composer, Henry Cowell has been heard throughout the world. He is also a music editor and critic and has recently returned from an international music conference. Mr. Cowell is on the faculty of Columbia University and New School for Social Research.

Monmouth students had a opportunity to hear a eyewitness report by Felix Greene, an observer of the international scene. Mr. Greene has travelled widely in China and has a new book called Awakened China.

Vera M. Dean is perhaps the best-known student and lecturer among women scholars in the U. S. She is well travelled and an author of several books. Monmouth was fortunate to have Vera Dean as one of the guest lecturers of the Liberal Arts Festival.

Scots retain Bronze Turkey.

On Saturday, October 20, 1962, the Fighting Scots won the battle for the Bronze Turkey, 20-6. Scoring in every period but the first, the Scots delighted a Monmouth crowd that nearly equalled that on the Knox side, even though the game was played in Galesburg.

This is the oldest rivalry west of the Alleghenies and was played for the 73rd time this year. The Turkey continues to rest in the Monmouth showcase as a result of the game.

Religion in Life Week

This year Dr. Lewis A. Briner was the leader for "Religion-In-Life" Week at Monmouth College. His general topic was "Escape, Quest, or Commitment." During the week of November 4 Dr. Briner headed numerous discussion groups in the fraternity houses and women's dorms, participated in seminars with faculty members and students, and held individual appointments.

Charles II

Charles II, a delightful musical comedy, under the direction of Mr. Brooks McNamara and Mr. Douglas Peterson, was presented in the Monmouth Little Theater on February 22 and 23.

The setting of the play is in Restoration England where the "Merry Monarch" has a frivolous night life. In order to try to cure the king of his questionable habits, a trick is played on him that involves the entire cast in a situation very amusing to the audience.

Student Concerts

Rick Smith, tenor

The Music Department at Monmouth provides the college and community audiences with outstanding performances by students, faculty, and guest artists. During the second term one concert brought together students in a string quartet, a woodwind quartet, the chamber orchestra, and Carol Christman as a piano soloist. Of special interest was Saint-Saens' "Carnival of Animals" by the chamber orchestra featuring Nellie Dietrich and Sally Parmenter, pianists.

Honors House

Fifteen senior girls helped establish a new tradition on Monmouth's campus this year. After applying and being interviewed by Miss Liedman, the girls were chosen on the basis of character, activities, and scholarship.

Each one will remember such times as the flag raising ceremonies, the 440-yard dash to Wallace for classes, the free pizza dinner compliments of the Flamingo, breakfast in curlers and pajamas, the cold night the TKE's came caroling, the breakfast for all the senior girls, and the day the white, three-legged cat became our mascot.

Junior Year Abroad

The Junior Year Abroad Study Program is another of Monmouth's opportunities for a wider educational background. Students who participate in this spend their junior year studying in one of the European or Far Eastern countries with a great opportunity to travel and learn about the attitudes and culture of the people with whom they are staying.

Julie Stankrauff, a member of Kappa Delta sorority and Tau Pi's Outstanding Freshman Woman, is Monmouth's JYA student who is spending her junior year at the University of Geneva, Geneva, Switzerland. Joyce Messenbrink also spent first term at Laval University in Quebec.

World University Service

Yes, it's all here! $111 from Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The drive to raise money for World University Service, sponsored yearly by the Monmouth YMCA and YWCA, took place during the week of April 1 under the chairmanship of Marsha MacMorran, Marge Henderson, and Tom Ulmet. Among the activities of the week were a WUS chapel, a style show in cooperation with the union program committee, a talent show, a chapel cut contest, a dance, and the long awaited auction. The action held the usual excitement as items such as the Phi Alpha house for a weekend, an ATO breakfast, many dinners and cars, an Alpha Xi chicken fry, and a one o'clock were sold to the highest bidder.

We end the big drive twisting.

ADMINISTRATION

ACADEMICS proved to be a challenge

The President's Message

The years roll by, and we wouldn't stop them if we could. Another one has slipped past us here at Monmouth. A scene which changes so quickly makes it all the more important that we have a record of this particular time in our history. That is what the editors of Ravelings have done for us.

Here you will find the record of the year portrayed through word and picture. It is already a priceless possession for events and groups could never again be gotten together. You will find that it will become more valuable with the passing of the years when you along with others review its pages. We shall always be indebted to those who have brought up to date this continued story of Monmouth College.

English

The English department regards the reading program instituted by the three-three plan as "very excellent and beneficial to the freshmen." Although the freshmen seem to have slight problems in adjusting to the concentrated program, the consecutive class meetings have proved to be of great value to the continuity of advance courses.

Speech

Paul Gray, A.M.

Brooks McNamara, M.A.

"The three-three plan has worked very well for the academic side of speech; students are working harder and are concentrating better." However, the extracurricular speech work seems to have suffered in the transition as there is less participation. Miss Leidman, also Dean of Women, is head of this department.

Library

Due to the increased reading and independent study required by the three-three plan, the use of the library has risen greatly. In spite of some limited facilities, the library has become the center of academic student life.

The Modern Foreign Language department finds that the three-three plan "implies serious, thoughtful study on the part of the students, careful planning with specific goals in mind on the part of the teacher." Adjustments were made to give elementary classes an extra laboratory period and to allow more time for independent study projects.

Course in Classical Mythology, taught by Miss Fox,

"Offerings in the Department of Classics have been altered somewhat in the new curriculum." Although the works of the standard Latin authors continue to be offered, new emphasis is being placed on independent study. Other courses in the department, excluding Greek, are crossreferenced with the English department and remain about the same.

Bernice Fox, M.A.

Physics

Under the three-three program students are "able to finish most courses for a physics major by the end of the junior year, leaving the senior year for seminar and independent study." This rapid movement is decidedly an advantage in preparing for graduate study.

Lyle Finley, A.M.
Department Chairman

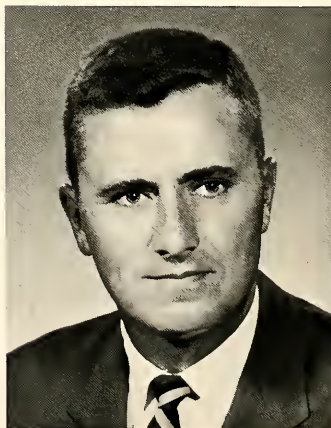

A. Frances Johnson, Ph.D.

Biology

"Condensation into ten weeks of what was formerly considered to be a semester's work requires that we take a long, hard look at the contents of our courses and the aims of those courses in the liberal arts context." The Biology department has done just that and shows a fine effort directed toward the success of the new plan.

Department Chairman

David Allison, Ph.D.

Milton Bowman, Ph.D.

Geology

"The three-three plan played havoc with the traditional geology spring field trip to Baraboo, Wisconsin." It was early November this year when the class had a first-hand view of many of the features studied during the year as they accomplished 6,000,000 foot-pounds of work in climbing the east bluff of Devil's Lake.

Chemistry

Dr. Thiessen ascribes the proficiency of the first year chemistry students to "the relentless forward drive of the three-three program." In spite of the reduced number of laboratory sessions, all of the chemistry students are working to capacity to meet the challenges offered by the new system.

Education

Due to the three-three plan, the Education department has had to revise some courses and combine others. State requirements for teachers being changed has also caused adjustment in the program. An example of this is that all high school teachers must know how to teach reading.

Albert Nicholas, A.M.

Benjamin Shawyer, Ed.D.

Mathematics

Rupert Boswell, Ph.D.
Department Chairman

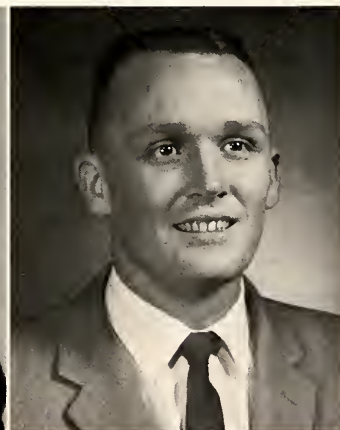

"The Department of Mathematics has not found the transition from the semester system to the term system to be difficult." The new plan has several advantages for the faculty as well as for the students in that the number of preparations that any staff member can have is many times only three.

Religion

Charles Speel, Ph.D.

Department Chairman

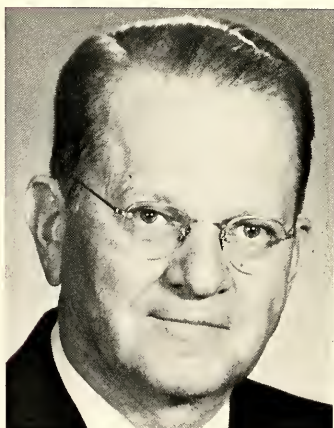

In the religion department, "The greater depth as well as the greater breadth of study . . . indicates that a knowledge fully as thorough as under the former curriculum is possible." Although the number of required courses has been lowered to one, "better subject mastery is becoming evident."

J. Stafford Weeks, Ph.D.
College Chaplain

Philosophy

"The change to the three-three program coincided with the expansion of the philosophy department." Along with the additional courses offered, the independent study program was strengthened as the advanced courses call for increased individual work.

Samuel Thompson, Ph.D.
Alumni Professor of Philosophy
Department Chairman

Prescott Johnson, Ph. D.

Music

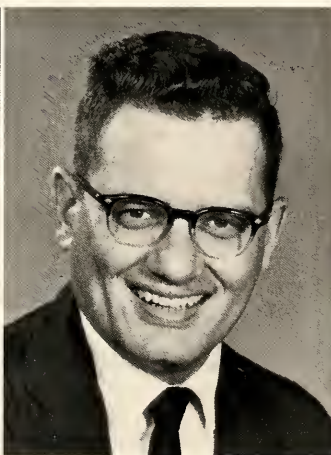

Heimo Loya, M.A.
Department Chairman

Enrollment in the Music department has increased under the new plan. Although the continuity of class work has been greatly improved, the divisions of applied music find difficulties as enrollments vary from term to term.

Studio courses in the Art department were essentially unchanged this year. Students in appreciation and history courses are delving deeper into fewer topics under the concentrated program.

History

Several adjustments were necessary in the History department in order to meet the problems presented by the three-three program. While new material is being added, including a projected sequence in oriental history, more time must be spent in research for students in advanced seminars.

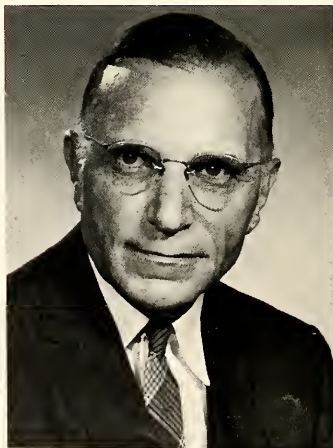

Mary Crow, Ph.M.

Douglas Spitz, M.A.

Government

Carl Gamer, Ph.D.
Department Chairman

Due to the three-three plan, there was an increased amount of concentrated study in the Government department. Individual study and seminars are including more research for students.

Psychology

Harold Ralston, Ph.D.
Department Chairman

Thomas Irwin, M.A.

Offerings in the Department of Psychology were substantially changed under the three-three plan. Although the course in General Psychology is basically the same, most of the others were somewhat altered as the "stress is placed on the study of experimental method and of statistical procedures."

Essentially the courses in the Sociology Department remained the same in the change to the three-three plan. Outside reading and independent study is stressed in various courses. Students interested in home and family life or population transition are urged to study in this department.

ACTIVITIES Inspired By New Student Center

Bill Hemphill, President; Darly Gillespie, Secretary; Howard Fulford, Treasurer. Not pictured: Terry Wilkison, Vice-president.

Student Council

Under a new constitution this year's Student Council proved to be a most effective organization. Last fall, the Student Council sponsored the activities for the Freshman Orientation Week. During the year they have organized senior week-end, carried out the Homecoming activities, handled the jazz concert starring the Smothers Brothers, reorganized the bulletin boards, and worked with the Student Union Committee.

Student Affairs Committee

The Student Affairs Committee is a judicial court handling violations of conduct becoming a student of Monmouth College. Student members are elected each spring by the student body to work with the administration in dealing with campus discipline. A separate "Court of Appeals" is now composed of President Gibson and Dean Manley.

Student Union Board

Programs at the Student Center are under the direction of the Student Union Board, Dean Liedman, Dean Ball, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Whiteman, Union Director. The Board has been divided into five committees which include many other students. These committees are Program, Exhibits and Facilities, Games and Instruction, Budget and Student Employees, and Calendar and Social Coordination.

Student Faculty Committee

The Student Faculty Committee seeks to provide a means by which faculty and students may be brought together so that they may more easily see each other's viewpoints and may more effectively cooperate for the good of Monmouth College. This committee is the bridge between the administration, faculty, and students.

Association of Women Students

The Association of Women Students at Monmouth College is basically designed to effect a representative form of government in the best interests of all women students. This organization also regulates on the matters that are assigned to it by the college administration and encourages a sense of personal appreciation of the highest ideals of college life among the women students.

Sigma Omicron Mu

Sigma Omicron Mu is the honorary scholastic fraternity on the Monmouth campus. Grade requirements have been adjusted to the new three-three plan and the average must be maintained for eight terms. The group also sponsors a yearly lecture program.

Tomahawk

Tomahawk, the national sophomore activities and scholastic honorary, exists for the benefit of unaffiliated students. In addition to its own social events, the local chapter also cooperated in a variety of campus activities.

Row 1: J. Larsen, M. Knudson, D. Zych, K. Matsumoto, C. Easdale, J. McCullough. Row 2: M. Bailey, G. Hall, N. Huff, L. Atherton, M. Nichols, J. Hood, A. Frost. Row 3: P. Sked, C. Blair, E. Smith, G. Huffman.

Tau Pi

Tau Pi, the senior women's honorary, chooses its members on the basis of character, leadership, and scholarship. They encourage good scholarship for women by holding a tea for freshmen having a grade point above the "all women's average" and giving a scholarship to a junior girl—this year Carol Chrisman. Among their other activities are a pajama party for freshman women, providing refreshments during exams, and choosing the outstanding freshman woman.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta is the scholastic honorary for freshmen women. Because of the three-three plan, the requirements for membership have been changed. As they now stand, a freshman woman must obtain an accumulative 3.5 average for the first two or three terms of her freshman year. This group is beginning to expand its activities, by doing service projects.

Phi Eta Mu selects its members from those freshmen men who receive an accumulative 3.5 average during the first two terms or for their entire freshman year. In 1963 there was a large increase in the number of men tapped.

Blue Key

Blue Key, an honor fraternity for junior and senior men, selects as its members those men who have shown themselves to be outstanding in their campus leadership and service. The purpose of this national fraternity is to serve actively the school, student life, and the community.

Sigma Tau Delta

Sigma Tau Delta is the national English honorary fraternity for students interested in this field. Monthly meetings are held at which members present original works. This group sponsors the Freshman Writing Contest and holds a banquet in the spring for all new members.

This fraternity fosters creative writing, an appreciation for good literature, and stimulating fellowship.

Sigma Delta Pi

Bagpipe Band

The Monmouth Highland Pipe Band is the colorful symbol of Scottish tradition. Begun in 1957 with four members it has grown to a unit of fourteen. In past years the band has played for football games, in Homecoming parades, on radio and television, and for commencement.

"On the outside it looks like a barn, but on the inside magic is produced with a little work, sweat, and dedication to the wonderful world of the theatre." This is what students in the various dramatic groups have said about the Little Theatre. But this past theatre season the "barn" has been transformed into a world of fantasy and color.

The main dramatic organization most responsible for the production of plays is Crimson Masque. Crimson Masque is made up of the thespian students on campus who bring us the dramatic productions. Membership is open to any interested student who has completed one or two semesters work in Dramatics 135 or 136, or those students chosen for their outstanding dramatic abilities. Crimson Masque is a member of the American Educational Theatre Association.

This year, under the direction of Mr. Douglas Peterson, the Monmouth College Choir completed one of its most successful seasons ever. The choir, composed of fifty-one members selected for their vocal musical ability, makes an extensive concert tour each spring. The 1963 spring tour took the choir on an eight-day trip to sixteen northern Illinois churches and high schools. After a free day in Chicago the choir returned to Monmouth to present its biggest concert of the year highlighted by Bach Cantata 131 "From the Deep, Lord" accompanied by a string ensemble. An added feature to this year's tour was a group of glee club members presented by "the men of the Monmouth College Choir and Sue Snyder."

In addition to the work for the spring tour the choir composed the main body of the Messiah Community Chorus. Each month the group also sings at the College Vesper Services.

Lack of depth, experience and an accumulation of injuries to several key players comprise the underlying factors behind a disappointing 1962 football season. The Fighting Scots dressed on the average of 28 men per game. Many of the men were playing their first season of varsity ball. The 2-6 record the Fighting Scots compiled is not indicative of the spirit which these men maintained throughout the season. With the new freshmen prospects and limited loss of seniors, the coaches look forward to next season.

With a big, strong line and a hard running backfield, the Wee Scots turned in a perfect 3-0 record and gave strong evidence of being one of the best freshman squads that Monmouth has had in many years. The defense held the opposition to one touchdown in all three contests, while the offense scored 20, 13, and 14 points respectively in the three games. As evidenced by this year's freshman performance, the varsity can look forward to considerable sophomore support next year.

Basketball

The Fighting Scots fought with little success on the hardwoods this season but despite their record, remained always a spirited crew. In looking at the bright spots of the year it is encouraging to note the slim margins by which Monmouth was defeated in many of their games, evidence that the Scots were in there fighting all the way. Another bright spot was the brilliant comeback made at the end of the season. With another year of valuable experience for many returning boys Monmouth should be represented by a very formidable crew next season.

Wee Scots Basketball

Under the able direction of Coach Woll, the Wee Scots compiled a record of three wins and three losses. After opening the season in a contest with the Varsity, the Wee Scots tackled the "Monmouth All-Stars" and came out victorious. The fast-moving team next met the Black Hawk College Freshmen and won handily. Following this, the Wee Scots met defeat at the hands of Canton Junior College and twice at the hands of Knox. The close decision with Knox evidenced the drive and spirit of the Monmouth boys; it provided fans with something to cheer about. They ended the season on a note of success, tromping the cagers from MacMurray College. Next year the Wee Scots will provide the Varsity with some excellent basketball material.

Cross Country

The Monmouth College Cross Country team enjoyed a successful and busy season in nine different meets this year. The Scots wound up in five of these contests as victors and turning in perfect scores on two successive occasions. The Wee Scots also showed a great deal of promise. Paced by Doug Carlson the freshmen won more than their share of meets. The conference meet found the Scots facing some stiff competition. Jim Whalen was the top performer for Monmouth.

Track

Twenty-three men are out for track this year, nine of whom are returning lettermen. This year's team is quite strong in the running events, featuring depth to insure Coach Andrew's team of seconds and thirds. Led by Bob Tucker, Jim Whalen, and Steve Pettit, the track team will give tough competition to any other conference contenders.

Row 1: Ken Klein, Dave Whiteman, Jim Wilson, Doug Carlson, Jim Gillette. Row 2: Quinn Anderson, Dan Bianucci, Dick Yahnke, Al Klein, Bob Frost, Dave Stamps.

Swimming

With a myriad of records broken by the M.C. tankmen this year, Monmouth again was fortunate to have one of the outstanding swimming teams in the conference. Coach Hank Andrews found Tom Doyle, Joel Auble, Bill Stillwell, and Dale Heimlich, among others, to be consistent winners in their respective events. Again this year swimming proved to be one of Monmouth College's strongest sports.

Wrestling

The Monmouth College wrestling team lived up to its pre-season expectations as a squad to be reckoned with. Led by Junior Bob Gould who enjoyed an outstanding year, the team posted a very respectable record. With all of the boys being either sophomores or juniors hopes are quite high for next year's season. Congratulations are in order to Coach Joe Pelisek for the splendid job he did with the team.

Golf

One of the newest sports on campus, golf, under Coach Woll, has in prospect a good season. Many hours of practice at the Monmouth Country Club are paying off and the team looks good for 1963.

Tennis

Although the team lost two of its best singles players, this year's tennis team has hopes for a successful season. Leading the team will be Neil McClanahan, Fred Goodale, Todd Bush, and Butch Sutinis. Coached by P. O. Smith, the team has been putting in long hours of practice and are trying their hardest to bring good tennis to the Fighting Scots.

Baseball

L. to R. Neil Yuran, Tom Rezner, Dick Burroughs, Bill Holland, Chuck Lindsey, Bill Reinsberg, Gene Dawson, Gary Gilliland, Bud Prince, Rod Reese, John Stack, Don Denny.

Many returning lettermen promise a fine season for Coach Pelisek's diamond nine. Led by the able pitching of Gene Dawson, the Scots are backed up by the fine talent of Gilliland, Burroughs, Wilkison, Stack, Prince, Lindsey, Holland, Reinsberg, and others. Eighteen games are scheduled for the Fighting Scots, including what should be three exciting contests with Knox. The Freshmen team also has some exceptional talent, which will supplement next year's varsity.

“M” Club

M Club is the organization composed of men who have won a varsity letter in one or more sports at Monmouth. Among their activities are holding a banquet for high school athletes, selling refreshments at sports events, and choosing a queen and court for the Monmouth Relays.

An award that the M Club began giving this year is a trophy to the athlete receiving the highest grade point for a term during which he participates in a freshman or varsity sport. The winners of this award were Rick Summerhill and Jack Garrett for the fall term, and Bill Goldsborough for the second term.
